This apartment features sweeping vistas from Bangaroo around to the Anzac bridge and to the serenity of the waters of Lavender Bay all from an undercover balcony. Situated on the 17th Floor of the superb Peninsula Towers in vibrant Milsons Point it is the ideally positioned downsizer or ultra convenient city bolthole. With 122m² on title the internal open plan living space is expansive, and light filled as you move effortlessly through from kitchen to living and onto the balcony to take advantage of the iconic outlook. Both bedrooms offer a fantastic level of storage and practical space with the master featuring Harbour glimpses along with a well-proportioned ensuite. Everything Milsons Point has to offer is on your doorstep, so leave the car in the secure parking and explore the award-winning cafes & restaurants, peaceful foreshore walks and local amenities or with both the ferry and train just steps away you can truly discover all the joys of this great city.
