This charming 3 bedroom home is located in highly sought after Don Street, just minutes from the centre of town, with a spectacular view of the Cathedral. As you enter the front door, you are greeted with timber flooring and high ceilings, 3 bedrooms located on each side of the hallway, with carpet, built in robes, split systems and hydronic heating. A spacious Kitchen is towards the back of the house with electric cooking facilities, dishwasher and island bench, followed by the spacious and charming dining room with an old feature fireplace and exposed timber beams. The updated bathroom comprises of a shower over bath, floating vanity and toilet. There is a separate Laundry which has also been renovated. Outside is a large, landscaped backyard with split levels, featuring loads of space, alfresco area, decorative retaining walls. There is 2 sheds, one with power and concrete flooring and the other is a small garden shed. This property is a rare find so be sure to get in quick!
