Welcome to the epitome of contemporary suburban living in thriving North West Sydney. A master planned community nestled amidst picturesque parklands and the convenience of local amenities including education, retail, public transport and recreation facilities, Gundari sets a new standard in modern living. Featuring contemporary home design and the ultimate in comfort, along with convenience and community living, Gundari is an exclusive two-stage residential development located in the heart of the growing Rouse Hill area. Meticulously designed and crafted, these collections of turnkey house and land packages are delivered by one of Australia's premier construction and design teams. A vibrant suburban community, Gundari strikes a harmonious balance between urban convenience and natural tranquility. Residents here enjoy easy access to city amenities, thanks to the nearby Tallawong Metro Station, which connects them to the heart of Sydney in no time. What truly sets Gundari apart is its exceptional location in the heart of Rouse Hill which offers bountiful green spaces, parks and walking trails, access to quality education options from childcare & Pre-K to primary and secondary schools, plus a wide variety of shopping and dining options. Running errands or grabbing your morning coffee hit is a breeze with Gundari within a short drive of local retail, restaurants, cafés and recreational offerings at Rouse Hill Town Centre & Rouse Hill Village Centre.
