This freestanding north facing family home is modern in design & cleverly laid out for maximum livability. Prominently located yet surprisingly private, this well designed home offers fantastic low maintenance finishes in a spacious setting. The large living room features polished concrete flooring, separate dining & kitchen, with WC for visitors. This provides plenty of space for the growing family or even a genuine home /office opportunity. On the upper level all bedrooms are a great size with built-in robes in each. The primary bedroom is extra large with en-suite. Centrally located with Annandale village, Norton Street and city transport just moments away. • Large bedrooms all with built-in robes • Spacious primary bedroom with en-suite • Integrated kitchen, European appliances • Abundance of storage plus internal laundry • Double off street parking, rear lane access
