Steeped in history and presenting, in abundance, beautiful original features. This impressive property will allow you to feel that home is definitely where the heart is. Originally built by the well-known Kerrison family in 1925, and the quality of craftsmanship is evident throughout the property. This spacious and grand home certainly would have been a show piece in its day, but thoughtful modernising makes it the ultimate for its next caretaker. Privately tucked away behind the imposing hedge, you will discover a pleasing and flexible floorplan. Comprising of 3 huge bedrooms, eat-in kitchen, including butler's pantry, generous dining space and uniquely has a separate bathing room. Close to everything that Beaconsfield has to offer and a short drive to Beauty Point, Greens Beach and all of the West Tamar delights including the many local wineries - all are on your doorstep. By George.....I think we have found it for you! Classic, charm and character of the grand gold rush days right here, right now. Call Craig and Deb, the Spouses Selling Houses team, at Nest Property for your inspection today.
