Due to a sudden change of situation our vendors need to sell their dream block of land and they need it sold NOW! This gorgeous 3.4Ha block is nicely elevated providing some incredible views over the valley towards Stroud, especially if you are clever with the way you build your home, yes there is a building entitlement too. Boasting a great shed it gives the lucky buyers plenty of options to spend their time appreciating the views and location while they plan their next move. As disappointed as the vendors are to be selling they are excited to hand this over to a lucky buyer. It needs to be sold quickly so it will be sold on a first in first served basis with all reasonable offers considered.
