Hard to find, renowned trout river bordering property, roughly an hour from Launceston or Devonport, is now available in this strikingly picturesque, rural valley. Comprising two delightful self-contained timber cottages, the charm is palpable. The larger house enjoys a two-sided verandah and two bedrooms as well as a modern kitchen and bathroom, with an open plan living and dining area with a glass-fronted wood heater and reverse-cycle air conditioning unit for warmth & a new 6 kW solar system is a cost-saving addition. • Approximately two acres in size • Within comfortable distance of major cities • Smaller cottage with bathroom & kitchenette
