Attractive timber framed home featuring lovely, polished timber flooring throughout with an abundance of natural lighting leaving the house feel open and airy. Offering three-bedrooms, inviting lounge area serviced by a reverse cycle split system, opening into the connecting dining area and modernized kitchen with electric cooking appliances. The bathroom has been tastefully updated with a separate laundry and toilet. In addition, the house offers optimal space for creativity or storage with a large, enclosed lobby at the rear of the house before stepping out to the spacious under cover entertaining area. Outside features a double carport, garden shed with cement flooring all resting upon a large, low maintenance and well fenced allotment.
