The Feel: A Victorian home that seamlessly melds the period and the present, this superb home delivers the flexibility of three distinct living zones, the family appeal of four bedroom, three bathroom accommodation and an indoor-outdoor focus enhanced by a garden backdrop featuring beautiful Ficus trees. The look and the luxury form an equation that's completed by a brilliant location – tree-lined, coveted and walking distance from a desirable array of amenities.

Perfection! The facts - A façade and front garden that create a gorgeous first impression and leaves a lasting impact of style.- High ceilings, polished floorboards, period skirting boards and cornices complemented by plantation shutters.- A selection of three substantial living zones offering a fabulous balance of refined and relaxed moods.- Main family living/dining area looks to the established garden surroundings through a wall of windows.- Open-plan kitchen with a walk-in pantry, waterfall stone island bench, ASKO appliances and Miele coffee machine.- 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms include a downstairs main bedroom with a walk-in robe and double shower ensuite.- Upstairs bedroom accompanied by its own bathroom, study area and a versatile retreat.- Zoned ducted heating/air-conditioning, solar panels, separate laundry, secure garage and additional tandem parking.- Close proximity to schools, Newport station, Mason Street shopping, library, playgrounds and Newport Lakes Reserve.
