Prestige position, privacy, and The Pacific

"The Cove"

Paradise has been found. This place is a sanctuary, an escape from the mainland.

Stradbroke Island Coastal Homes are proud and privileged to be offering one of the Island's most coveted and prestigious properties, The Cove, to the market.

You will find yourself nestled in your own private island sanctuary with a take your breath away uninterrupted (and never to be built out) views across South Gorge Beach.

A gentle walk to the world-renowned Gorge Walk, patrolled Main Beach and the amenities of Point Lookout, you will be spoiled for dining choices and of course beach choices. Relax and unwind at the Point Lookout Surf Club with an afternoon Aperol on your weekends while you watch the whales and dolphins play.

The elegant, light filled apartment offers spaces to relax, unwind and connect. The natural flow between the verandah area and the open planned living spaces creates an uninterrupted connection to the crystal clear waters of the Pacific Ocean and engenders comfort and luxury within your own oasis.

The property features three spacious and light filled bedrooms, including the master suite with private bathroom, direct access to the ocean serenity of the verandah, and gorgeous views.

And of course, with the beauty, immaculate presentation, and location of The Cove it offers the astute investor an unprecedented rental yield earning up to $80,000 per year.

Find your North Stradbroke Island sanctuary and escape to The Cove.

The resort features a shared pool, BBQ area and entertaining space.
