A perfect north aspect, well-proportioned interiors and a quiet district outlook offer ideal foundations for this renovated two-bedroom apartment. Set to the rear of a well-maintained block, it's located opposite the wide-open expanse of Rowland Park with close proximity to Kingsford village shops, UNSW, light rail and express city transport. Features include two double bedrooms, one with built ins; sun-drenched living opening to a north-facing balcony; near-new eat-in kitchen with provisions for an internal laundry; renovated bathroom; large lock-up garage with ample storage space; and a share laundry room. Perfect for a homebuyer looking for a tastefully renovated property. The apartment's central location and close proximity to beaches make it an ideal investment in an area of high demand.
