Simply superb - this immaculately presented and beautifully maintained unit is guaranteed to impress the most fastidious of buyers. From the moment you step inside you could be excused for thinking its almost "as new" and a true indication of the way the current owners have been looking after this well kept gem! The other great news is that the current owners will be more than happy to remain in the property and rent it back from the successful buyer on a long term lease at $1,781.00 p.c.m $410 Per Week - should the successful purchasers choose. Featuring two spacious robed bedrooms, semi ensuite to master, sep toilet, beautifully maintained gleaming kitchen with separate pantry, ample cupboards, Bosch dishwasher, sep adjoining meals area plus a spacious sitting/lounge room with access to a private courtyard covered by a sensational wisteria, and an assortment of greenery including established garden plants and trees embracing the peaceful ambience and oasis on offer. There are added bonuses throughout with Two separate split systems for heating & cooling, gas wall furnace and quality floor and window coverings - not to mention the "man cave" hidden away peacefully (converted garage space) please call to arrange your PRIVATE inspection and register early.
