If you're after a home close to all the action, striking distance to the city, restaurants, nightlife, shopping, Swan River foreshore and more, welcome to 18/34 Bulwer St Perth. Set within a secure and private complex with established common gardens and lawn, this renovated, two-bedroom, one-bathroom unit is close enough to everything that counts - perfect for a professional couple, downsizers or an investor seeking a fabulous, inner-city opportunity. Reaping the benefit of a second-floor unit, not only do you have no one above you, but your views are over lush, green treetops high above the road, providing a fresh, airy outlook. Step inside and be greeted with an open, bright living space. Featuring warm, timber-look flooring, downlights, plantation shutters, and an abundance of natural light with a view out to the garden beyond, this is a gorgeous space comprising the open plan living and dining areas. Beyond is the kitchen, with plenty of cupboard space and treetop views while both bedrooms feature the comfort of carpet and wonderful views from the generous-sized windows. The main bedroom boasts a ceiling fan, sliding mirrored robes, and split-system air-conditioning while the renovated bathroom and laundry are sleek and contemporary. Although you have undercover parking for one and plenty of visitor parking for your guests, you'll enjoy most of your surroundings and amenities easily on foot, with your local Woolworths, HBF Park, Brisbane Hotel and local café, all less than a mere ten minutes' walk away. Positioned on the doorstep of the CBD, this prime location has convenience and lifestyle written all over it. Cycle or walk to the city, or along the banks of the Swan River, and take advantage of diverse dining options, bars, music venues, shops and more right on your doorstep.
