Nestled in the serene and family-friendly neighbourhood of Eaglehawk, this delightful two-bedroom, one-bath residence presents an ideal opportunity for a young family seeking a fresh start together or an investor looking for their next addition to their portfolio. The property, located on a quiet street, exudes the classic charm of a California bungalow, complemented by tall ceilings that create an inviting and spacious ambiance. This property is an excellent match for those aspiring to balance the tranquillity of suburban life with the convenience of urban amenities. The California bungalow style adds a touch of historical charm, making this home not just a living space but a piece of art. Located near the Eaglehawk train station this home is great for those who are looking for access to public transport and is within walking distance from the centre of Eaglehawk amenities such as IGA, Eaglehawk EUFS, Eaglehawk Botanical Gardens, and much more. Ideal for a young family or trades professionals, 18 Caldwell Road is more than a house; it's a place to create lasting memories. With its combination of style, comfort, and location, this Eaglehawk gem is ready to be called home. Contact us today to book an inspection
