Rich in history and desirably situated in the coveted Geelong West lifestyle zone, this charming double fronted Victorian period home and its deep north facing allotment are perfectly poised for their next chapter with options to renovate, extend and transform - where the only limitation is your imagination. Perfectly comfortable to enjoy now or lease out while considering the possibilities, the wide entrance hall featuring period features, high ceilings and timber floors flowing through to a generous living room, three double bedrooms and a bathroom. The large capable kitchen with ample space for dining opens to the very deep private northern year yard. Secluded amongst established gardens, the 535sqm block enjoys an abundance of north facing natural light and is positioned within a glorious tree lined streetscape close to the Geelong train station, Pakington Street Village, a selection of excellent schools, a choice of parks, the CBD and Waterfront.
