Step into a delightful spring haven with our newest property on the market! Perfectly positioned within a short stroll from the esteemed Saltwater P9 College and just a brief walk away from the delightful Tribeca Village shops and cafes, this home offers an idyllic blend of convenience and tranquility. This residence is tailor-made for the quintessential family lifestyle, featuring four cozy bedrooms and two bathrooms. With a double garage and a study nook, practicality meets comfort seamlessly. Two spacious living areas provide ample room for relaxation and bonding time. The kitchen, complete with 900ml appliances, is a hub of culinary creativity. Enjoy the ease of ducted heating and evaporative cooling as you move through the seasons. A garden awaits you outdoors, extending your living space to the fresh air. With a land size of 400 sqm, you'll find plenty of room for play and relaxation. In a market which is seeing a record low supply and fast increasing migration levels, buying opportunities are becoming difficult to find. In the rare instances where good properties like this become available, it is a wise decision to ensure you inspect and if the home matches your requirements, you put your best foot forward to hopefully secure your new home. This property is an ideal prospect for both discerning investors and families seeking a haven of comfort. Spring beckons you to make your move - seize this opportunity and make this property your own!
