From the front garden to back fence, this three bedroom home on some 546m² delights the senses. The classical mood established by a traditional façade is complemented by the character of the accommodation which includes a front bedroom featuring a romantic verandah retreat while a central bathroom reveals the success of its renovation. A central living room defined by the home's signature polished floors beneath an ornate original ceiling leads to a separate dining area that opens to a welcoming covered alfresco patio and the north-facing rear garden's solar heated pool and spa. It's a beautiful backdrop to a home that's completed by a kitchen where complete current day functionality can be complemented by a contemporary update when so desired. Low-maintenance landscaping, storage shed and a carport accessed by a shared drive accompany a coveted address, with approved plans, close to Newport Park, The Strand and Hall Street.
