AUCTION

Savouring the serenity of its peaceful leafy surroundings, this spacious elevated home resides on a sizeable 659m² block (approx.), benefiting from stylish renovated interiors and proximity to popular amenities. Perched on the high side of a whisper quiet street, the home is instantly captivating with its neatly manicured frontage and tidy monochrome façade, opening to reveal an intuitive light-filled layout enhanced by crisp white walls, Scandinavian-style flooring and soothing treetop outlooks. The bright and airy living room is generously sized and wonderfully welcoming with its contemporary feature lighting and modern contrasting windows, flowing seamlessly to the tiled dining zone. Sure to delight the aspiring chef, the sleek stone kitchen connects with ease, boasting designer cabinetry and European appliances, while the nearby entertainers' pergola gazes out to the expansive backyard. Completing the home's relaxing ambience, all four bedrooms are comfortable and quiet with the largest two benefiting from hotel-inspired ensuites that boast rainfall showers, luxe marble-effect basins, floor-to-ceiling tiles and chic vanities. There's also a stylish family bathroom with laundry facilities and a secure double garage placed underneath the house, plus a large storage shed. Adding to the property's sparkling interiors and move-in ready appeal, finishing touches include new ducted heating/evaporative cooling systems and fresh paint throughout. Promising a lifestyle of ultimate convenience for a busy household, Vermont South Shopping Centre, prestigious Emmaus College, city trams and buses are within a short walk, while the home is also zoned for nearby Livingstone Primary School and Forest Hill College. Additionally, it's within moments of vibrant shopping hubs including The Glen and Burwood One, plus parks, wetlands and the Eastlink for seamless commuting. With nothing left to do but unpack and relax, don't miss out on this impressive family retreat in a desirable pocket of Vermont South. Photo ID required at all open for inspections.
