Positioned on 5.7 acres only minutes from Batemans Bay, this perfect coastal tree change is ready for a new family. A winding country driveway leads to a home that exudes a special ambience and enjoys complete privacy. The house is level with a covered verandah running the full length of the northern side and it is nestled in beautiful established gardens. The construction is double brick with a colour bond roof. All living areas are spacious, and the attractive kitchen is the central hub of the house and flows to the large covered entertainment deck where you can enjoy the view, coastal breezes and relaxed entertaining. The property has many features and benefits including a fabulous two-sided slow-combustion wood burner which can be enjoyed from the formal sunken lounge or the family room, and good natural light. loads of storage, and a laundry bigger than most bedrooms, a fabulous pizza oven. All bedrooms are large, the main very generous with built-in and walk-in storage plus an ensuite. The property has expansive cleared areas, fully fenced boundaries and fantastic outdoor storage and garaging for cars, boats, caravans and motor homes.
