

18 Deputor Street, Rochedale South, Qld 4123

Sold House

Tuesday, 20 February 2024

18 Deputor Street, Rochedale South, Qld 4123

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 786 m2

Type: House

Lisa Etri

0730598600

$885,000

If you are looking for a home that offers a flexible, spacious design combined with comfort and style. This is it! The brick and tile construction reveals a pleasant facade and when you step inside you will be delighted to find a home that is filled with light and character, blended perfectly with modern features and neutral tones. The generous family room offers plenty of space to relax and is adorned with tiled flooring and fitted with air conditioning for comfort throughout the seasons and the dining room offers subtle separation that provides the ideal spot for hosting dinner parties or family gatherings. Flowing on from there is the stylish kitchen with a thoughtful design that incorporates generous storage and bench space. It is finished in contemporary colours, stylish cabinetry and quality appliances including electric cooktop, wall oven and integrated dishwasher and there is an adjoining space that could be used for an open study area or casual dining. The expansive enclosed sunroom is a wonderful addition to the home providing extra space for whatever you choose. It has a woodfire for the cooler months and is perfect for entertaining in any weather. Outside you will find an inviting yard that is dotted with lush plants and cascading gardens. There is plenty of room for children to play and pets to roam and the surrounding neighbourhood is quiet and friendly making it a pleasure to live here. The 3 generous built in bedrooms are fitted with air conditioning and the home is serviced by the stylish family bathroom complete with bathtub and separate shower. Situated in a very desirable street with parklands nearby and all the conveniences within minutes. Don't miss this one! 3 bedrooms 1 bathroom Air conditioned Solar Power