Nestled within the highly coveted San Remo locale, this exquisite family abode boasts four generous bedrooms. The opulent master suite showcases a pair of expansive walk-in robes, complemented by an ensuite adorned with a shower, dual sinks, a wooden vanity, and a separate toilet. Ensuring year-round comfort, this sanctuary also features fixed wall panel heating and central cooling. On the left wing of the residence, discover three additional well-appointed bedrooms, each graced with built-in robes, fixed wall panel heaters, and central cooling. Adjacent lies the main bathroom, boasting a luxurious bathtub, shower, and separate toilet. Designed for both work and leisure, this residence includes a study and three spacious living areas. Two of these living spaces is equipped with a split system heating and cooling unit, ensuring personalized climate control. A culinary haven awaits in the beautiful kitchen, complete with gas cooking, a dishwasher, stainless steel appliances, a substantial butler's pantry, and elegant stone benchtops. The open-plan layout seamlessly integrates the kitchen, living, and dining areas, fostering effortless entertaining. Step through glass sliding doors to the undercover alfresco zone, extending to a spacious yet low-maintenance yard, featuring a practical garden shed. Completing the picture, a double garage with internal access and side gate entry provides both convenience and security. This property for rent is proudly offered by Ray White Real Estate Phillip Island.
