This is a standout property that will ignite curiosity and capture the attention of those looking for a great renovation project in a premium Ashfield setting. On offer is a solid single-storey freestanding home on a level block of land, a couple of blocks away from Peace Park. All the elements are here for the chance to add tremendous appeal and be within close proximity to all the suburb's excellent shopping, dining and schooling options. Worn out interiors are now overdue for a modern update. Practical floorplan with two bedrooms and one bathroom. Bright interiors feature separate living and dining spaces. A deep front garden plus a private courtyard at the rear. Huge potential for update, renovation or extension (STCA). Set in a quiet tree-lined street within footsteps to bus connections. Walk to a range of schools including Trinity Grammar and Ashfield Boys. On offer is a solid single-storey freestanding home on a level block of land, a few blocks away from Peace Park and a short distance from Ashfield Station.
