Charm, Convenience & Style are some of the key characteristics you'll notice as you enter this extraordinary home. Leave the car at home with all your amenities a stone throws away. Including Eden Rise shopping centre, parklands, public transport and freeway access around the corner! The home itself is immaculate, featuring accommodation of three generous bedrooms. The master located to the front of the home, containing generous proportions, walk in robe and ensuite. The two remaining bedrooms are spacious and are equipped with built in robes. Work from home with your large study that could double as a fourth bedroom. Moving to the centre of the home, cater easily with a substantial kitchen equipped with new appliances. The kitchen flows neatly into the living & dining areas which in turn leads outside. As you step outdoors enjoy low maintenance living but still have the capacity to entertain with a magnificent alfresco that overlooks your resort style pool. A home of this calibre is a rare find. Call now to book your inspection!
