This huge five-bedroom home ticks all the boxes for a large family! Only 10 years young, it was purpose built for luxury and convenience in mind. Modern and tastefully decorated throughout, it really is a credit to the owners. Boasting a huge showstopping galley kitchen, with 5-meter breakfast bar, you'll be the envy of any chief! I can't cook but even I am in love with this double oven! Every room in this home has been built for family comfort, all four minor bedrooms are queen size with built in robes and the master and ensuite are truly fit for the king and queen of the house. Stepping Outside, you are instantly transported to an oasis of mature tropical plants, that even the beginner gardener will be able to manage! Spacious gable patio and gigantic shed with access, the whole family will have the space they need to unwind. The ample features of this stunning home really must be viewed to be appreciated and I feel the first to see will buy!
