Welcome to 18 Honeywood Drive – a secluded country retreat nestled at the end of a private driveway. This exquisite timber and brick home, constructed in 1994, offers a sprawling family haven boasting 260m² of living space. With 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, and multiple living areas spread across two levels, this residence is perfectly designed for comfortable and spacious family living. Nestled on slightly more than 4 acres, this property is your own personal slice of paradise, with a harmonious blend of light bush, pasture and gardens. Offering abundant space, it provides an optimal environment for a family and even animals to enjoy. As you approach, the home captivates with its unique personality, featuring a striking roofline and stunning architectural details including timber beams, cathedral ceilings, and expansive windows that flood the interior with natural light. The driveway gracefully descends to a turning circle in front of the home, and there is ample secure and undercover parking with a double carport plus garage space for 4 vehicles. The heart of the home lies in its open-plan dining and kitchen area, a versatile space that easily accommodates a large dining table. Ideal for entertaining family and friends, this inviting space enjoys panoramic views of the picturesque Mt Wellington and majestic Gunners Quoin, creating the perfect backdrop for shared meals and gatherings. A gas wood fire feature provides the perfect atmosphere in the cooler months. The spacious timber kitchen boasts updated stainless steel appliances, including a dishwasher, combining style with functionality. The home also boasts a separate living room and an additional rumpus room, providing ample space for various family activities. The rumpus room conveniently opens to the outdoors, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. At the rear of the house there is an easy care entertaining area, complete with undercover entertaining – an idyllic setting for summer barbecues. Upstairs, a private sanctuary awaits in the form of the parents' retreat. This elevated space overlooks the valley, offering the best views of the property. The retreat includes a private balcony, providing a serene escape to unwind at the end of the day. The master suite, complete with an ensuite and a walk-in robe, ensures luxurious comfort and privacy. Located within 6km of shops and schools and with the Hobart city just 25km away, this unique property offers an exceptional opportunity to embrace the charm of rural living without sacrificing the ease of city proximity. 18 Honeywood Drive is not just a home; it's a comfortable and welcoming haven. Embrace the beauty of country living while enjoying the modern comforts and thoughtful design of this exceptional property. Make this unique residence your own and create lasting memories in the heart of Honeywood. Contact us today to find out more, we look forward to showing you through.
