An address that's zoned to Seabrook Primary School - the campus is literally just a minute or two away - complements this immaculate original home in a cul-de-sac location that also puts Pipeline Reserve and playground within a moment's walk. Such an ideal setting ensures a rewarding experience from instantly appealing, easily updated dimensions. Attractive street frontage, wide side drive. Living room receives bright northern light. Separate dining has sliding doors to garden. Perfectly preserved kitchen with large pantry. Main bedroom with walk-in robe and ensuite. 2 further bedrooms, each with a walk-in robe. Central bathroom, convenient separate laundry. Gas ducted heating and effective roller shutters. Rear garden area includes dual storage sheds. Secure double garage and easy extra parking. The combination of its well-maintained original proportions and a position offering such outstanding lifestyle advantages makes this a hugely positive family opportunity!
