If a low maintenance home in a convenient central location, and, at an affordable price point sounds like your new home or investment ... then here it is. Designed for easy/carefree living this property offers a large tiled open living space which enjoys direct access to the enclosed north facing entertaining area. And, with extras like air conditioning and ceiling fans everything is catered for. The large double garage has plenty of storage space and drive through access at the rear - the ideal spot for the boat or van. This home is just right - right size, in the right position, and at the right price.
