Saltwater Coast - an exclusive master-planned community which will contain spacious wetlands and parks, including award winning Crocodile Park. All amenities are right on your doorstep, including a state-of-the-art Lifestyle Centre with Pool, Gym, Café, Tennis courts and of course neighbourhood shopping centre, childcare facilities, primary schools and sporting ovals. The area is well connected with roads and the thriving suburbs of Point Cook, Williams Landing, Werribee South Beach and Altona Beach just a short drive away. Public transport is at your doorstep with a frequent bus route direct to Williams Landing Station via Sanctuary Lakes Shopping Centre. Best Living Place for All Families, especially growing families at any stage will find their wonderful lifestyle here. About the House, from the inviting façade with portico entry and double-garage with in-house access, a lasting first impression is made. The stylish interior is introduced by the wide central corridor that leads to the spacious and sun-filled living area at that rear of the home. An expanse of windows and easy-care tile flooring enrich the open concept design that flows out to the covered patio and blank canvas garden. Anchored by the generous kitchen with stainless steel appliances, gas range, and stone bench-top, indoor-outdoor living is achieved with ease. Four well-sized bedrooms configuration also has its sights set firmly on family comfort. The beautiful main bedroom with ensuite and walk-in robe resides at the front of the residence, while the family bedrooms and bathrooms are situated in their own wing at the rear. With a soaker tub in the family bathroom, a generous laundry for convenience, and ducted heating and cooling to keep temperate year-round, this home uses contemporary design to create the ultimate family oasis.
