A spectacular, exquisitely renovated end of terrace residence in a gorgeous characterful street, perfectly placed to indulge in everything this magnificent location has to offer. A superb walk everywhere, central Subiaco spot - close to the Farmer's Market, train station, a plethora of restaurants, cafes, bars, pubs, boutique shopping, local parks, Subiaco Primary, Subi Square, the medical precinct at SCGH and QEII, KEMH, Kings Park and offering easy access to the CBD. Set well back from the road, this magnificent home stands out from the crowd with its bold black and white exterior and beautifully detailed wrought iron lacework adorning the balcony and verandahs. Designed for effortless, harmonious living, elegant, contemporary interiors are equally impressive - a striking, modern palette of cool white with black and timber accents emphasizing generous proportions and beautiful sundrenched rooms. This stunning home features glorious ground floor open plan spaces bathed in natural light, a sleek galley kitchen with ample storage, 3 lovely, sunny bedrooms, 2 stylish bathrooms and gorgeous outdoor areas perfect for relaxed living and laidback entertaining. French doors open from the living area to a gorgeous, paved courtyard at the front, and to the super-sized alfresco entertaining courtyard at the rear. The blissful master bedroom hosts a wall of built in robes and accesses a lovely balcony tucked under the bullnosed verandah at the front. The modern bathroom features a floating vanity with concrete top, walk in shower and WC. Both minor bedrooms have ceiling fans. Parking for 2 cars at the rear and a large secure storeroom. 18 Raphael St. An absolute winner in the lifestyle stakes. Perfect for those looking for a stunning, nothing to do, low maintenance home with all the accoutrements of modern luxury living in the heart of Subiaco.
