Welcome to Skene Street, one of Stawell's most popular residential locations. Only a short stroll to shops, cafes, bars, doctors, parks and more. This stylish property will suit your needs, positioned on a private corner allotment of 748m<sup>2</sup> with two street frontages. The home exudes charm with the front entrance with stained glass feature windows and the living room with ornate ceilings, an inbuilt electric heater and a reverse cycle split system air conditioner. The formal dining room is adjacent to the living room and has an inbuilt wood heater, leadlight doors and is open to the fully equipped timber kitchen with gas cooktop and electric oven. There are three bedrooms, the main with built in robes and a timeless open fireplace, bedroom two also has built in robes while bedroom three is smaller and can also be utilised as a study or hobby room. The bathroom is centrally positioned and has a shower over bath and vanity, the toilet is separate and can be accessed from either the bathroom or the rear sunroom. Outside in the established gardens you will find a handy sleepout, workshop and double carport. Don't miss out on the chance to call this classic home in a classic street yours.
