Nestled in a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of Chittaway Bay, this charming brick and tile abode is ready for its next owner to call it home. The residence features a renovated kitchen complete with stone benchtops and stainless steel appliances. The renovated bathroom includes a bath, adding a touch of luxury to everyday living. The home boasts four bedrooms, including a large walk-in robe, and an extra study area that could serve as a possible fifth bedroom. Perfect for in-law accommodation. The formal living space and separate kitchen and dining areas provide plenty of room for family gatherings. Plantation shutters for added privacy and style. Additionally, there's a casual meals area for more intimate dining. Step outside to find your place of retreat and relaxation with the undercover outdoor entertaining area. This space is perfect for hosting gatherings, featuring an outdoor kitchen with an oven, all overlooking the approximately 594sqm block with a vegetable garden and 14 fruit trees. The property also includes a carport, and a garden shed spacious enough for all your tools and equipment. Conveniently located, this home is only a short distance from Tuggerah Lake, local schools, shops, and transport. Enjoy the peace and quiet of the cul-de-sac while taking advantage of the potential this property offers. With its ideal location, you're just a 10-minute drive from beaches, a major shopping center, trains, and the M1 motorway.
