Oaklands Park hidden gem, 18 The Ridge offers one lucky buyer 180 degree panoramic views in private and tranquil setting. Tucked away and hidden from the streetscape this pleasantly surprising property will pull at the heart strings with its family friendly floorplan that takes advantage of its scenic backyard to capture the most scintillating views from almost every room. The sunlight meals/ family and rumpus is bathed in natural light whilst the separate theatre room is the perfect retreat to get away and watch a movie. The bedroom accommodation is cleverly configured with an elite master suite comprising double vanity ensuite and walk in robes whilst remaining sleeping quarters are positioned on the other wing and are complemented by a centralised bathroom. The timber kitchen is practical with an abundance of cupboard and bench space and seamlessly complements the main living zone. The extensive circular driveway leading to auto double garage which allows ample parking for cars, boats, trailers and caravans whilst the backyard allows further scope to build a pool, entertainment area /recreational hub and workshop. Perfectly presented the property is further enhanced its 2.7m ceiling, evaporative cooling, ducting heating, wood heater, ducted vacuum, quality blinds and new carpets. Located within a short commute to the Melbourne Airport, Tullamarine Freeway Hume Anglican Grammar, Aitken College and Craigieburn Town centre and offering great recreational facilities such as golf range, tennis courts, parks, lakes and BBQ area. This is an incredible lifestyle that awaits one lucky purchaser, an inspection is highly recommended for your consideration.
