

18 Thornley Street, Drummoyne, NSW 2047

CobdenHayson.

Sold House

Friday, 10 November 2023

18 Thornley Street, Drummoyne, NSW 2047

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 252 m2

Type: House

Mia Fredrix
0416223699

Chad Egan
0408884353

$3,350,000

In a top spot at the harbourside end of the street, this freestanding home presents as a traditional Federation cottage but it's the creatively redesigned interiors and uplifting sense of light, space and privacy that bring the wow factor. Opened out and extended to take full advantage of a north to rear aspect, the three-bedroom home strikes a perfect chord between classic elegance and contemporary luxury with an upper level parents' retreat conceived as a private sanctuary with tranquil bay glimpses. Around the corner from Drummoyne Sailing Club and Birkenhead Point Shopping Centre, this coveted east side address is just 400m to the Bay Run and Drummoyne Swimming Centre offering the best of urban convenience and lifestyle appeal.- Corbelled arch hallway, polished Australian hardwood floors- 3 large bedrooms with built-in robes and plantation shutters- Master suite with a dressing room and northerly bay glimpses- Streamlined Caesarstone kitchen in Statuario Maximus- Butler's pantry/laundry, Miele appliances, induction cooktop- Sun-drenched living and dining with floor to ceiling windows- Private north-facing entertainer's terrace framed by greenery- Luxurious European-appointed family bathroom and ensuite- Daikin ducted air (zoned), custom joinery, gas heating bayonet - Auto gated access to double parking, level 269sqm approx - 300m to Birkenhead Point shops, 500m to Harris Farm Markets- Stroll to picturesque foreshore parkland and the sailing club