This period home nestled in the heart of Bairnsdale boasts three cosy bedrooms, a family-friendly bathroom, and not one but two inviting living rooms, this residence is an ideal opportunity for first home buyers & keen renovators. As you step inside, you'll be greeted by the timeless elegance of high ceilings and solid timber floors that resonate with the character of yesteryear. The house sits proudly on a generous 751 square metre block, surrounded by well-maintained gardens and mature canopy trees that provide a tranquil façade. The spacious land parcel not only offers a large allotment for outdoor activities and potential expansion but also includes a fully secure yard—perfect for the little ones to play in. For those with a penchant for fresh eggs, the existing chicken coop is a delightful bonus. Practical features include split system heating and cooling along with ceiling fans to ensure comfort throughout the seasons. With convenience in mind, this property is located within walking distance to Bairnsdale CBD, where you'll find all your essentials, as well as the local outdoor pool for leisurely summer days. This home is ready to live in, yet holds tremendous potential for those who dream of creating their bespoke haven. Don't miss out on the chance to make 18 Turnbull your new address and the canvas for your future memories.
