••••• Allow "The Secret" to indulge your senses with 3,539 square metres of tranquillity, ideally positioned along the renowned Great Ocean Road and adjacent to the Bay of Islands reserve, Peterborough. Arriving at the front gate from the hustle and bustle of life, you look through the native hinterlands towards the towering limestone stacks of the Bay of Islands, feeling a true sense of being at one with nature and the Southern Ocean. Explore the local beaches, bays and coves at your own pace, with the sand between your toes, the pace of life will soon adjust. The delightfully renovated home is sympathetic to the coastal environment, with clean exterior lines, combined with interior glimpses of the long history associated with the property. Polished Baltic Pine floorboards reflect the abundance of natural light throughout the interior of the modernised 3-bedroom home, brimming with high quality finishings, carefully combining the original character with ultra-modern touches. Meal preparation is a joy via the ample bench space, full electric cooking and feature custom concrete sink area - all whilst absorbing the clifftop vista. The modern bathroom is bright and chic, perfect for a final rinse after using your external shower to dust off after a day at the beach just across the road. Open plan flows seamlessly from the kitchen to the ample dining space, stepping down easily to the southerly facing lounge, ideal for cracking open a window to enjoy the afternoon sea breeze. A real entertainer on many levels, the northern façade deck space provides the ideal platform for social catch ups, fuelled by local artisan delights or the freshest seafood sourced a mere 200 meters south. The surrounding grounds enjoy a refreshing privacy, where adults, children and furry friends can run, play and hide at will or take the short stroll to the sheltered Crofts Bay, well known to local fishermen, surfers and divers alike. With plenty of room to park a boat or more, and only just around the corner to Boat Bay, one of the best spots along the coastline to launch your boat or kayak to explore the truly majestic Bay of Islands Marine Park. Presented to the market via public auction, "The Secret" provides a very rare opportunity to those seeking an ocean side retreat or permanent residence. One of only three properties along this unspoiled section of the Great Ocean Road, call today to register your interest and explore "The Secret".
