Radiating contemporary elegance throughout, this gorgeous c1900 home is so inviting with its sun-drenched dimensions providing a wonderful family sanctuary for relaxed living and entertaining just moments to the CBD, local Charles street cafes and Launceston General Hospital. Distinguished by classic period charm outside, the beautifully remodelled interiors present an entirely contemporary tone with beautiful timber floors, crisp lines, and a free-flowing floorplan. With a generous entrance hall, leading to an expansive sitting room, the French doors extend the living options out to a captivating decked area, complete with plunge pool. The oversized master suite faces north and takes in the most stunning views over the city and river; creating the perfect space to rest and rejuvenate. Ample parking including a lock up remote garage plus 2 secure spaces behind automatic gates, this inner city home will delight you.
