With an expansive two-bedroom design consisting of open-plan living & dining, indoor-outdoor entertaining, and comfortable low-maintenance living; future owners will appreciate the added logistical benefit of being metres from Flagstaff Gardens and Bourke Street Mall. Complete with an east-facing entertainer's terrace, the open-concept blueprint favours the entertainer with its simple, sun-kissed, and infinitely versatile design. Boasting timber island and immaculate modern finishes, the kitchen offers a masterclass in functional beauty, combining integrated appliances with a flawless contemporary finish. Two bedrooms, both with BIR, are accommodated by a family bathroom flaunting floor-to-ceiling tiling and frameless shower. Further highlights include entry study, split-system A/C, storage, and a never-to-be-built out view overlooking the Supreme Court. Positioned within reach of everything you would ever need, this address will be a joy any time of day and night, with Melbourne's best bars, cafes, and restaurants surrounding you in every direction.
