Situated just an easy stroll away from the centre of town and boasting an incredible amount of space - inside and out - 183 Dalton Street could very well be the centrally located home your family has always wanted. Across the two storeys there is certainly no shortage of rooms for the whole family: four large bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, three separate living areas, and four bathrooms. A light-filled and well-appointed kitchen opens out into an adjoining dining room as well as the private patio. There's also a lovely north-facing sunroom with windows from the floor to the ceiling, as well as an attached large double-bay garage. The block is 973 square metres and has established trees, gardens and lawns that are eye-catching and yet easy to maintain. The centre of town is just minutes away, and there are other shops, cafes, parks and schools nearby. If you have a large family and require an abundance of space, then this house is precisely what you've been looking for.
