Located on the picturesque ever so popular Oshanassy Street is this captivating weatherboard house that is ready for you to make a home. With a mix of history, character and modern touches this home has been renovated to perfection with comfortability in mind. Starting off with a large entry hall with tall ceilings and detailing on the trims, these tall ceilings and detailing continue throughout the home giving you such an inviting feel. Consisting of three bedrooms, all rooms have built-in robes. Attached to the master bedroom you'll find your newly renovated contemporary ensuite that's double vanity set including two mirrors, two sinks complimented with stunning marble bench top, large shower, toilet & heated towel rail. The main bathroom is just as impressive with another large shower, free standing bath tub, separate toilet, and stunning marble bench top. The open plan flow layout of the property works so perfectly for entertaining friends and family all year round. With your spacious living & dining area attached just off the kitchen and large glass bifold doors that open up all the way allowing you to walk seamlessly onto your outdoor undercover decking, extending your already spacious living area even larger. The kitchen is the heart of the home, and this kitchen is heart-stopping. Accommodating all your needs, ample storage with soft close cupboards, quality appliance, dishwasher, marble stone bench tops, feature hanging light and few extra features you will need to come see for yourself. It's the little details that makes this property captivating, glass panels scattered around the property allowing natural light to flow seamlessly throughout the home, freshly polished floorboards, roller blinds throughout, secure fencing surrounding the perimeter of the property, 1.5 lock up garage + large tool shed, single carport, additional extra 2 secure parking spots behind the secure fencing on your property line, two split system, security alarm system and the list can go on! Now the gardens, front, back & nature strip will not be your worry as the gardening will be maintained by a professional gardener at least once a month with no extra cost as it's part of your rent & rental agreement. All you will need to do is inspect the home and see the beauty for yourself. Please ensure you REGISTER your details to ensure you are kept up to date with any changes on inspections times.
