This beautiful country cottage called 'Leamington' is looking for a very special family to move in and love every feature she has to offer! Located in the heart of Riverstone close to shops, transport, cafes and arterial road access this home is very well loved, with its picket fence frontage, comfy verandah, undercover gated carport and large fenced backyard with undercover entertaining! The home feels amazing as soon as you step inside - filled with sunlight, polished floors, ornate ceiling-work and leadlight windows! It has an entry hall leading to the large dining room, and a huge living space with high ceilings, French doors, built in bookcases and split system reverse cycle ac to enjoy. The kitchen boasts island bench, electric appliances and dishwasher, and has ample character with its ornate original wood oven and stained glass. There are four bedrooms with built ins, the main featuring bay window plus ensuite, and a main bathroom which has been renovated to suit the home perfectly. The laundry is separately situated at the rear door with ample cabinetry and extra storage room; and the home has established easy care gardens and lots of off street parking. This is a home to fall in love with - book your personal tour today!
