This exquisitely renovated home, nestled on a leafy corner in the heart of Brunswick East is an ideal find for families or young professionals. Features include: a recently refurbished kitchen, complemented by stone and timber countertops, three generously proportioned bedrooms and an open living/dining room with spacious high ceilings. The delightful North facing garden, on 390m<sup>2</sup>, offers abundant space to entertain guests or for children to play beneath an apple tree. Multiple storage zones, including a shed and side-access garage, create the perfect canvas for expansion opportunities. Nestled in one of Melbourne's premier locations, mere moments from Lygon Street, Nicholson's cafes, bars, and restaurants, Ceres and the Merri creek trails. This superb location also offers easy access to numerous trams just a short stroll away. All of this, while being zoned to Brunswick East Primary School and Northcote High School. Don't let this remarkable chance to reside in Brunswick East slip through your fingers.
