This stylish, fully renovated and extended residence is located within walking distance to schools, shops, Central Gippsland Hospital and recreational facilities. The home has been beautifully renovated throughout and is sure to impress the astute purchaser. Featuring an amazing new kitchen complete with timber benchtops and an abundance of storage and bench space it connects to the meals area and large light filled family room with split system air conditioning. The stunning new modern bathroom boasts freestanding bath and hidden toilet, while the cleverly located laundry offers custom cabinetry for washer and dryer. The master bedroom enjoys a lovely ensuite, WIR and split system air conditioning and the further 3 bedrooms each have BIR's. Additional features polished timber flooring, double glazing to most of the windows/doors, modern fixtures and fittings and good storage. Relax and enjoy the outdoors all year round with 2 entertaining areas – an large open deck off the family room plus a covered pergola connected to the garage/workshop/storage that has access from Darling Street. There is a carport that allows for undercover access into the home and a well maintained, easy-care backyard. Only on inspection can you truly appreciate this fabulous property!
