This is a great opportunity to purchase an elegant 1953 built beautifully renovated residence that takes in the serene views of Emu Bay and stands on a very sheltered 1,024m² block that is within close walking distance of the Burnie CBD. On inspection you will love the style and quality throughout, you will enjoy relaxing on the exceptional wrap around deck, you will be totally impressed with the spacious kitchen and outstanding butlers pantry, be delighted with the sparkling ensuite and main bathroom, appreciate the peacefulness evident in the 3 bedrooms, admire the space and position of the living and dining rooms with sliding doors opening out to that exceptional deck plus the convenience of a large laundry, separate 3rd toilet and vanity and 2 reverse cycle air-conditioners. The home is surrounded by very well maintained lawns and established gardens with a fantastic water feature/ fountain providing an air of restfulness plus a single garage, rumpus and storage area under. If this property is just what you have been searching for do not hesitate to call or email me to book an inspection.
