Nestled moments away from Port Phillip Bay and Albert Park Village, this charming brick Victorian home offers not just a desirable location, but a wealth of hidden treasures within. Step inside to discover a spacious interior with polished timber floors flowing throughout. Two expansive bedrooms, complete with floor-to-ceiling built-in robes (not pictured), ensure ample storage space, while a living room and a well-appointed kitchen with a brand new oven (not pictured) and dishwasher complete the picture. Adjacent to the kitchen, you'll find a modern bathroom and a European laundry with a separate wash trough. The dining space is bathed in natural light, extending effortlessly to a private northern courtyard boasting a generous storage shed and laneway access. This traditional Victorian terrace is sure to tick every box. Be quick to inspect!
