This exquisite rural holding with over 900m of Denmark River frontage with riparian rights is in the heart of Scotsdale, less than 5 kms from town. Originally settled in 1904, it epitomises everything Denmark. Undulating and wrapped in karri, it is particularly private and beautifully silent. The architect's brief was to create a home that gave the feeling of being outside within the comfort of the home, offering a view from every window. There's walls of double-glazed glass, luxurious fittings and extensive use of marri throughout. Outside, there's 7 easy paddocks, new fencing, steelyards, a large GP shed and a 100+ year old cottage that still stands amongst an ancient orchard. More details by request. Please note: viewings are strictly by appointment only.
