Facilities Zillmere is conveniently connected Brisbane with its own railway station. It has a busy local shopping centre adjacent to the railway with four other shopping centres within a 5-kilometre radius. Zillmere also has good air connection, with the Brisbane Airport being only 15 minutes away. The Gold Coast and Sunshine Coast are also easily accessible via the Gateway Motorway. Zillmere has a government school, the Zillmere State School established in 1877, as well as a parish school along with a number of churches. It boasts 2 football clubs, the North Star Football Club which plays in the Brisbane Premier League and Zillmere Eagles Australian Football Club. Zillmere hosts a multicultural festival known as Zillfest which is an annual event of performing arts, crafts, and delicacies and traditions of local cultural groups. Regular musical and stage shows are close by at the Brisbane Entertainment Centre in Boondall.

Infrastructure: The Brisbane City Council is planning extensive urban renewal of the public areas within the suburb. Chermshire offers Zillmere residents access to two hospitals (Holy Spirit Northside Private Hospital and The Prince Charles Hospital) and Westfield Chermshire, the largest shopping centre in all of Queensland, featuring all major retailers, restaurants, a 16-screen cinema complex and a 26-lane Hyperbowl Bowling Centre. Zillmere has a council library. Small and large beautiful parks dot the peaceful suburb equipped with barbecue, picnic and children's play areas. Major roads such as Gympie Road or Sandgate Road cut down the commuting time to Brisbane city to about 25 minutes.
