Seamless access and connectivity are assured, with easy access to EastLink and the bustling Eastland shopping precinct. Just 24 kilometres to the CBD, this village is in Melbourne's coveted eastern suburbs and was originally a hedge-to-hedge apple orchard evident in the parks, reserves, and waterways. Great Ryrie and Marlborough Primary Schools and Aquinas and Heathmont Colleges are all within walking distance, and Ringwood Secondary College is a short drive. Convenient access to public transportation is available with Heathmont Station and Ringwood Station situated nearby, along with accessible bus routes.
