THE DEAL: Expressions of Interest

Nestled within a charming locale, this home is a testament to low-maintenance living merged with the ease of urban access. Positioned to enjoy the best of both worlds, you're just a stroll away from the bustling Main Street, filled with culinary delights and social hubs or a short drive to the vibrant Mt Hawthorn and Leederville precinct. Equally close, a relaxing morning walk through tree-lined streets will take you to the tranquil Candella Square Park. Open-plan in design, this layout is intuitive. Encouraging a relaxed flow from the living space to the kitchen and dining areas, catering to day-to-day life with simplicity and ease. The activity room, an adaptable space at the rear of the home, offers a second living area or tranquil working from home space. Walk out to a generous backyard, the perfect blank canvas for gardening enthusiasts or a safe haven for pets to play. This outdoor area promises everything from cozy, winter gatherings with loved ones, to relaxing sunny afternoons under the shade of the incredible, mature fiddle leaf fig tree. Functionality is woven into the fabric of this home. A dedicated laundry room simplifies household tasks, while the main bedroom, spacious and complete with custom-built robes, and a second bedroom with built-in storage, both serve as restful retreats. With recent updates, the residence maintains its 70's character while integrating modern amenities. The kitchen and bathroom, refreshed only a couple of years ago, boast contemporary fixtures and finishes that elevate daily routines into experiences of comfort and style. SEALS THE DEAL With Development Approval for a 4x2 extension ready to go, the hard part has been done. Move right in and embark on a lifestyle that suits you with financial upside and room to grow for the family.
