Offering a relaxed low-maintenance lifestyle for those seeking space, style and Newtown convenience, this bright and airy two-level townhouse is a fresh modern home with lots of appeal. Impressively well-presented throughout with good quality finishes and an inviting floorplan that encourages indoor-outdoor entertaining, it provides effortless living and sits quietly back from the street in an immaculately maintained complex. This peaceful haven is also well-located within easy reach of all of Newtown's highlights and is just a short walk up to King Street's famous dining strip, with Marrickville Metro shopping, the train station and local cafes close by.

- Combining fresh and bright interiors with cool easy-clean flooring
- A well-appointed layout with open-style lounge and dining area
- Easy level flow to a private backyard and paved entertainment zone
- Two upstairs double bedrooms both have built-ins and ceiling fans
- A well-equipped kitchen with great workspace and gas appliances
- Direct internal access to a basement level garage and storage space
- Easy access to St Peters train station, local cafés and Sydney Park
