Exceedingly spacious while thoughtful in its easy-living design, this inner-city entertainer's haven enjoys a relaxed and refined atmosphere among an endlessly energetic locale. Rich in passive light and modern luxuries, a cleverly worked plan promotes freedom of flow, with quiet outdoor areas providing sun-soaked retreats for blue-sky afternoons. Met with effortless flow, a considerable, western courtyard adjoins an expansive living/dining space, served by an impressive, gourmet kitchen boasting high-end appliances and ample bench/cabinet space. Highlighting the home's dimensions and versatility in design, two substantial, robe-lined bedrooms share access to an additional, eastern courtyard, while other features include built-in robes, a modern bathroom, reverse-cycle heating and cooling, ceiling fans, an intercom, European laundry, and two basement car spaces. Metres from scenic Yarra trails and acres of waterfront parkland, it's a short walk to city and Chapel Street trams, North Richmond Station, and Victoria Street's famed culinary scene, along with Victoria Gardens (with IKEA and HOYTS Cinema), Bridge Road brunch spots, and the animated Abbotsford Convent.
